PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Friday, August 24, 2007

So you think you can draw? paint? take photos?... There's still time to enter the DPW Cleaner and Greener Calendar Art Contest

Today DPW announced that citizens still have a few more weeks to enter the "Cleaner and Greener" Calendar Art Contest. The contest deadline has been extended to September 21st to better accommodate students and others returning from vacation.

The Department of Public Works is looking for two-dimensional artwork including photos, paintings, sketches and drawings that show activities related to Public Works. Three contest winners will have their work displayed in the 2008 DPW Calendar. The grand-prize winning entry will be on the cover of the award-winning DPW Calendar which is distributed to over 200,000 homes. If you win, your art will be in every one of them. Additional prizes will also be awarded.

Any city resident (except employees of DPW) is eligible to enter the contest regardless of age or art know-how. Themes for your artwork can range from trash and recycling collection, to harbor cleaning, city building maintenance, the city fleet of vehicles, community clean ups, walking at the reservoirs, providing drinking water...Just think of the possibilities.

Everyone is encouraged to enter. To obtain an application and contest requirements, contact the DPW Office of Media Communications at 410-545-6189. Entries must be received by September 21, 2007 at 4:30 P.M.
